Wilde's American Earnings Have Totalled Over $48,000

English Champion Signed for Two Other Bouts Which Will Net Him $15,000 More.

By John Pollock.

Jimmy Wilde, the English boxer and also the legitimate flyweight champion of the world, certainly made a wise move when he came to this country for fight, as he has already made over $48,000 out of the contests he has so far engaged in and besides he has been booked up for two more battles which will bring him an additional $15,000. For one of these bouts, that with Patsy Wallace of Philadelphia at an open air boxing show on May 24, he is to receive a guarantee of $10,000 for a two-round bout. For his second go at the National A. C. of Philadelphia on May 18, he is to receive $5,000 for an eight-round go. His opponent has not been selected as yet. Wilde will be twenty-eight years old on May 12.

Johnny Shaggs, the English light-weight, is no longer under the management of George Lawson. He has parted with him and has placed himself in the hands of Jimmy Johnson, who has signed him up to a contract. Shaggs has already been beaten by Willie Jackson and Ritchie Mitchell, the crack American light-weight.

A match was arranged to-day between Balding Levin, the light heavy-weight champion and Earl Bob Jones, the Chicago heavy-weight. They were booked to-day to battle for ten rounds at John Wagner's Club at Kenosha, Wis., on the night of May 21. Jones has been doing considerable fighting in the West in the last eighteen months.

The first open air boxing show of the season at Huntington, N. Y., will be staged to-night at the big baseball park there under the auspices of the Emerald-Johnson Showmen A. A. Three ten round bouts will be contested. Clay Turner vs. Paul Ramon of New York, Henry Neil of Altoona, Pa., vs. Jimmy Kelly of New York and Eddie Wagner of Philly vs. Charlie "Kid" Thomas of Atlantic City.

Bobby Gleason, the former amateur champion but who has now developed into a middleweight, is booked to fight Jimmy Jones the husky boxer of Akron, O., for ten rounds in the semi-final to the world title on between Champion Jack Britton and Champion Mike O'Dowd at the McManis A. C. of Canton, O., on the night of May 17.

George Egan, the former light-weight champion, who is to change in his first contest in this country with Lew Tedder of Philadelphia at the Arena A. C. of Jersey City on May 12. In training for the contest at the City A. C. on West 54th Street. He does his roadwork in Central Park and his boxing at the club.

Tommy Blackstone, who recently serving a sentence by knocking out Oakey Kere, will box Billy Richards at Paterson Monday night. In the other twelve-round event Willie Herman at Paterson and Eddie Foster will clash.

The boxing fans of Detroit, Mich., are certain to see some good millage this summer as a result of some close bouts. The National Sporting Club, for its outdoor shows. Werbe will stage a show of three ten-round contests and an eight-round preliminary meeting May 19.

Joe Thompson, the retired Jersey City light-weight who is now a boxing promoter at Waterbury, Conn., made such a big success of his first boxing show there recently that he has decided to stage another show on May 20. He has practically staked up Frankie Burns and Dutch Brandt and Willie Brandt of New Brunswick with some good underweight. He will stage three ten round bouts.

"Slim" Herman, the popular referee of boxing contests in the State of New Jersey, will most likely be selected to referee the important twelve round bout between Willie Jackson of Houston and Johnny Dundee, the fast Italian light-weight, which will be fought at the Sportmen's Club at Newark.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—Ineffective pitching by Smith and errors behind him gave Boston a lead that Philadelphia could not overcome, the Braves winning their second straight game in the series by a score of 5 to 0.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 7.—St. Louis defeated Cincinnati by a score of 6 to 0 in the second game of their series here.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 7.—Pittsburgh defeated Chicago for the second time at home by a score of 2 to 1.

DETROIT, Mich., May 7.—Bunched hits in three innings of the second game of the St. Louis series won for Detroit by a score of 6 to 4.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Cleveland made hit two straight from Chicago, winning by a score of 3 to 2 in ten innings.

BOSTON, May 7.—Two doubles by Tim Hendryx and two errors by Gail-Jewey helped Boston to defeat Philadelphia by a score of 3 to 1. Jones yielded only four hits and was supported ably by McNally and Hooper. Scott's error in the ninth paved the way for the visitors' lone run.

BOSTON, May 7.—The signing of John Evers, former National League player, as coach of the Boston College baseball team, was announced to-day.

He will take charge of the team at once. His salary was said to be unusually high.
